Because I believe this program will benefit my child both educationally and spiritually, I request that my son/daughter be allowed to participate in TOTUS TUUS with St. John Vianney (hereafter the "Organization") on July 8—13, 2018.

I understand that all rules of conduct and standards of behavior, as deemed by the Organization will apply to this program and I have discussed these with my son/daughter. I further understand that I must assume all responsibility and liability for my child while traveling to, from, and during this program. With this knowledge, I freely assume this responsibility and liability.

I also understand that transportation is not provided for this event. Therefore, I understand that some participants may be traveling by privately owned vehicles which may or may not be covered by insurance. With this knowledge, I hereby consent to my child traveling to, from, and during this trip in either of these manners. I further understand that the Organization is not responsible for any damages or accidents that may result from my child's actions or the actions of others. To the greatest extent possible, I release the Organization and the Diocese of Springfield in Illinois, and all those acting on their behalf, from all liability for damages to or caused by my child as a result of this event and I agree to indemnify them for any such damages.

Does this participant have any allergies or other medical conditions that might affect this person's ability to fully participate in the Totus Tuus program? Yes No. If yes, please describe on a separate sheet.

If your son/daughter is taking medication, please bring all medication in the original prescription container with the label still attached. Please write directions for taking the medication, including frequency, dosage, and storage on a separate sheet.
